

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 18, 2020

Contact:

Shawn P. Middleton
Director of Communications
(781) 324-7705 ext. 320
smiddleton@mves.org

Malden's Good Shepherd United Methodist Church Donates Bags of Nonperishable Groceries to Mystic Valley Elder Services

(Malden, MA)— The Good Shepherd United Methodist Church recently donated 25 bags of nonperishable groceries, including canned fruit, applesauce, canned vegetables, granola bars, spaghetti sauce, toilet paper, sanitizer, paper towels, Kleenex and other such items to Mystic Valley Elder Services to assist the older adults cared for by them. This is the fourth year in a row members of Good Shepherd United Methodist Church have conducted a food drive to benefit older adults.

-30-

Good Shepherd United Methodist Church of Malden recently donated 25 bags of nonperishable groceries to Mystic Valley Elder Services (MVES) to assist the older adults cared for by MVES. (left to right) Jackie Bernson and Beulah Diganof Good Shepherd United Methodist Church of Malden; Jenny Vanasse, Development Director at MVES; and Patty Murphy of Good Shepherd United Methodist Church of Malden.